MEMORANDUM

TO: Mr. John C. Baugh
Mr. Ron Leadbetter

FROM: Charles E. Smith

DATE: June 3, 1974

It is my understanding that the special Board committee which heard the appeal of the Gay People's Alliance plans to present a report to the full Board at the June 20 meeting. Who is drafting the report and what are the committee's conclusions? I believe we should get together with Joe Johnson and Jack Reese to review this matter at an early date.

Thank you.

Dear Charles:

In response to your Memorandum dated June 3, 1974, Ron Leadbetter has been working with the special committee (Bevins, Kinser, McDowell) in preparing a finding of facts and decision on the Gay Peoples' Alliance appeal. I have not been formally advised about the decision, but I understand they were considering a decision unfavorable to the organization.

Ron is in Cincinnati for the Hooban appeal in the U. S. Court of Appeals. When he returns I will ask him to give you a report.

Sincerely yours,

John C. Baugh
