WELCOMING YOU TO PRIDEFEST

The East Tennessee Equality Council (ETEC) is proud to welcome you to Knoxville PrideFest 2013. Each year our events grow and we have more fun than ever before. This year will be no different, but no matter how big it gets, it won't be the same without YOU! With over 25 events in 2013, there is something for everyone so check out our online calendar, grab a friend and come LIVE. LOVE. BE. PROUD! WITH KNOXVILLE PRIDEFEST!

has already been a memorable year for LGBT Americans and we're hoping to be able to celebrate some more victories for Equality by the time Knoxville PrideFest rolls around on 6/22. Marriage Equality seems to be on everyone's minds and with 12 states and the District of Columbia now recognizing same-sex marriages, how much longer can it really be before it's the law of the land? Well, you may know THAT answer before this book comes to print as the US Supreme Court is expected to rule on the "Defense of Marriage Act" and California's discriminatory "Prop 8" in early June. No matter what the SCOTUS ruling, 2013 will go down in history as a groundbreaking year for advancing Marriage Equality and we can't wait to celebrate our victories with you at Knoxville PrideFest 2013!

The Boy Scouts of America have also been in the mix as, while denying equal rights to LGBT adults to help lead their troops, they did have over 61% of their membership vote to allow gay youth to be Scouts. I'm not really sure what that means for those boys once they grow up and the organization disallows them to continue serving, but maybe they'll "Be Prepared" to figure that out at that time. In any case, EVERYONE'S welcome at Knoxville PrideFest, so we hope they all come OUT & Live. Love. Be. PROUD! w/ us this year.

If you haven't heard, 2013 also brings a lot of changes to our own Knoxville PrideFest Festival. The biggest change is a move from our beloved home for the last 5 years on Market Square to the South Lawn of the World's Fair Park. It's a move that we thought long & hard about, but in the end was a result of our own success & growth and the need to allow our community to continue experiencing that growth as we Live. Love. Be. PROUD! daily. Make sure and check out the "What's New at Knoxville PrideFest" page later in this book for some other changes that come along with our move. I hope you'll be as excited as we are and come OUT to celebrate with us.

The biggest change is our venue, but to me the most important change is our choice of headlining entertainment for this year's festival. I won't spoil the surprise as there's plenty of info later in this book, but suffice it to say that ALL 4 (Yes 4) of our headliners choose to Live. Love. Be. PROUD! right along w/ you as out & proud members of the LGBT Community. A great FIRST for Knoxville that I hope you appreciate & enjoy.

We're always proud of our inclusion of a wide variety of venues for our events. If you're joining us for one of our 20 Eat OUT w/ Pride events, heading to The Emporium for Art OUT in the City, coming out to the always HOT Next to Nothing Fashion Show & Auction or even marching down Gay St. in the Pride Parade, that's what PRIDE is all about, so come OUT and Live. Love. Be. PROUD! ALL over Knoxville with Knoxville PrideFest.

No matter HOW you celebrate, or who you are, whether you make all of the events, or just a few, come OUT and Live. Love. Be. PROUD! with Knoxville PrideFest this year! It won't be the same without YOU!

See you there,
M. Todd Cramer
President East TN Equality Council

June 22, 2013

Welcome to the 2013 Knoxville PrideFest!

This annual celebration of music, entertainment and speakers focuses on one of humanity's basic principles: to promote equality and inclusion of all. While the festival has moved from Market Square to World's Fair Park this year, the mission to "live, love and be proud" hasn't changed and still rings true.

Throughout the day, you have an opportunity to support vendors and businesses that reach out to the LGBT community. They have come to display information about their organization and sell goods and services. By supporting these businesses, you help to bolster our local economy and make Knoxville even stronger.

The 2013 PrideFest features several activities, including a joint concert with the Knoxville Gay Men's Chorus and Nashville in Harmony, Art Out in the City, the Pride Picnic, and more. Last year, I walked in the parade down Gay Street to show my support for equality. Though I am unable to participate this year, I hope the 2013 parade is an even bigger success.

I have often said that a great city opens its arms and gathers into its midst the diversity of its people - people of all races and colors, people of all abilities, gay and straight, people of all faiths, from the youngest to the oldest, from the richest to the poorest. All of us are Knoxville, and Knoxville will only become greater if all of us are involved and respected,

I am honored to serve as your Mayor, and hope you will enjoy all of the activities that PrideFest has to offer.

Sincerely,

WE TAKE PRIDE IN OUR PUB!

“On the Corner of Jackson and South Central, In the Old City”

Our mission is to celebrate and preserve our regions' musical heritage in the only way it can be done: playing the tunes and passing them on from musician to musician. East Tennessee has rich roots in Irish and Scottish music, and they merged here with other influences and evolved into bluegrass and old time Appalachian genres. At Boyd's Jig and Reel we celebrate our musical past, our present, and future. Come on down, bring your fiddle or instrument of your choice and join in. If you forget your instrument, there are plenty tuned up and ready to play from pianos to a double bass to a harp, and of course plenty of mandolins and fiddles. Don't play? We have beer and food for the spectators!

Palmer Sampson started drawing as a small child, as he grew older, Palmer expanded his artistic abilities. In elementary school, Palmer honed his skills drawing and started crafting with clay. Middle school brought object reconstruction into Palmer's focus. While Palmer was in high school, his grandmother opened a craft store and Palmer made arts and crafts and sold them in her store. Palmer served four years in the Navy. The years after that Palmer held several jobs ranging from an industrial pinter to a database administrator, and even a personal trainer. Eventually, Palmer found his calling as an independent artist. Palmer now does custom paintings ranging from solid colors to murals. Many of his inspirations come from the exotic places he's had the pleasure of living in during his four Naval years. Palmer fell in love with the rich cultures he experienced in Belgium, Paris, Dubai, Greece, Rome, Napoli, Bahrain, Tahiti, Bora Bora, and Macedonia. Some of his paintings also reflect the wonderful culture of the various states that Palmer's experienced, such as North Dakota, Montana, Arizona, Virginia, Tennessee, Maryland, New York, Pennsylvania, New Mexico, and Florida. Palmer enjoys his art fully as his life's passion and employment.
